14. Frankfurt files contain the following traces: a. Zoltan MAKRA: Ref is made to MGKW 7025; ECLA 8492; EGSA 2560; & ECLA 4590 1) The following 3 traces are taken from [] reports: a) EGMA 9898, 18-2-54: The Hungarian Journalists' Association Dr. Zoltan MAKRA, is one of 7 individual organizations which the Hungarian emigres have formed into overall Hungarian organization. b) EGMA 10134, 9-3-54: sub-source claims to know that the Hungarian newspaper Hungaria, published by Dr. Zoltan MAKRA received approximately 25,000 DM from German sources in fall 1953. The financiers' names are not known to sub-source. In addition, Dr. MAKRA is said to have very good contacts in today's Hungary. He supposedly carries on correspondence, not only with his relatives, but with other unknown people. Apparently, MAKRA'S relatives are not disturbed by the authorities for this correspondence with MAKRA in the West. c) EGMA 11538, 21-6-54: MAKRA is the sub-source of this report re Hungarian Emigre Affairs. 2) HICOG Desp 758, 13-10-52, info received from CIC; MAKRA, born 5 July 1915 in Arad, Hungary (now Rumania), received the degree of doctor of law in 1937 at the University of Budapest. He served in the army from 1937-1939. He then went to work in the Ministry of Defense, first in the Passport then in the Legal Division. Toward the end of 1940 he was transferred to the Minist... section and later became secretary to Vilmos NAGY, who was Minister of Defense until 11 June 1943. He served in the same capacity under the new Minister of Defense, Lajos CSATAI, until Oct 1944. He was then recalled to active duty in the army but was assigned to the Ministry of Defense. Makra was subsequently evacuated with the Ministry to Germany. After the war he returned to the Legal Division, remaining until February 1949, when he came to Munich by way of the French Zone of Austria.
